

After much anticipation and a run of over 3 years, the movie was finally released on 31 August 1996. It was released on New Year's Day in 1997. It had a collection of 3.48 Crores on Indian release and was declared a disaster. Plot The movie is about a college student by name Siddharth Kaul (Jackie Shroff), who has just completed his graduation. Siddharth's father (Rajendra Nath) is a retired colonel in the Indian army, who is addicted to his favourite black malt whiskey. Siddharth's mother (Kamini Raut) is a Gujarati lady who is wealthy by her own means. Siddharth lives with his parents in a luxurious bungalow in Mumbai. There he is engaged to a fellow college student named Megha Kaul (Nina Singh). Siddharth plans to visit his mother's home in Gujarat. It is during his visit, he learns that his mother was secretly married to his maternal grandfather. In fact, he learns that his mother is not his biological mother but a Gujarati lady named Suvarna. She is a spinster who lives in the countryside with her husband. She has no children. The grandson she has is her only son, Siddharth's father. Suvarna knew about her husband's plan of kidnapping her and killing her for money. The plan went wrong, as the baby she had was not the same as her husband's. She grew furious at him and wanted to kill him and his son for getting a child from her. Siddharth was just a baby at that time. At that time, Megha was staying with her maternal grandmother, and it was Megha who saved Siddharth. Megha took Siddharth to Mumbai, after their marriage. Siddharth then meets his maternal grandfather, who only has one wish in his life, to see his grandson Siddharth. He reveals the truth about his daughter, Suvarna. When Megha was brought up in Gujarat, she didn't learn anything about her parents. She hates her mother. She wanted to help her mother but she was not aware that she has a son. Siddharth then has a fight with Megha. He challenges her to kill his father for the truth. The next day, he goes to Gujarat and reaches his mother's house. He makes a police report against his father's coldblooded murder of
