RPG Maker 2 (Windows) > Full Version.. 01.12.2016. | 09.28.2016. | 09.02.2017. | 11.17.2017..Q: React Native navigation component setState not working with hooks I have a Nav component that is just a parent that handles the header, and nested Navigation component which handles the 3D-ish header. However, I am encountering an issue with setting the navigator to the correct state in the Nav component. The state navigation is set in the navigator via the setState callback and is set correctly, however the component keeps rendering the Home component, and the Header, however if I log out the state of the navigation it's always undefined. What am I doing wrong here? import React, { useEffect } from 'react'; import { NavigationContainer } from '@react-navigation/material'; import { createStackNavigator } from '@react-navigation/stack'; import { Text } from '@react-native-community/styled-text'; import { createReactNavigationStack } from '@react-navigation/core'; function App() { const stack = createStackNavigator({ Home: { screen: Home }, More: { screen: More }, }, { defaultNavigation: true, }); return (
