

This is another great book that very painfully describes the story of the Karbala incident in Urdu. An event in Karbala in one of its aspects took place elsewhere, in Babylon, where King Nebuchadnezzar II, son of Nabopolassar, in 598 BC. e. conquered the city, where King Belshazzar, the son of Nabopolassar, was put to a painful execution, and his wife and other close associates of the king were beheaded. Nebuchadnezzar II destroyed the city and wiped it off the face of the earth, even stones and bricks were taken away and used to build a new and richer capital. The story as a whole is as follows. While Belshazzar, king of Babylon, was in
